EDITORIAL PROTOCOLS

Academic Papers
Academic papers whose abstracts are accepted will be subject to a double-blind external peer review. The length of the final mss should be no more than 6,500 words including

This journal follows a double-blind reviewing procedure. If accepted, authors will be requested to submit at the same time as the review:

– A blinded mss without any identifying names, affiliations, citations or references.
– A separate title page, which should have the following information on it:
  • The name(s) of the author
  • A concise and informative title
  • The affiliation(s) and address(es) of the author(s)
  • The email address and telephone number of the corresponding author.

If the full manuscript of your article is accepted by the Editor, it will be sent for review by at least two readers with expertise in the field. They will suggest acceptance, request changes, or recommend decline. The editor will inform the author of the results of the review with instructions regarding how to proceed.

Articles passing peer review and given final acceptance by the Editor must be prepared for publication. The authors at this point will be asked to provide Acknowledgements (if any), including funding sources, which should be placed before any other acknowledgement.

NOTE: Please make sure to read the section below re endnotes: we do not accept footnotes. Use the MS Word form for formatting. (see http://word.mvps.org/faqs/formatting/footnotefaq.htm).

ALL SUBMISSIONS

Permissions
Permission must have been granted for any material under copyright, and a written copy of the permission must be included, including illustrations. The author of the submission must provide in writing a guarantee that the work described and illustrations have not been published before, or if so, where and when, and are not under consideration in any other form or place, that the work is being submitted with the agreement of all co-authors if applicable and with the consent of the place e.g. firm or institution where the work was undertaken if applicable.

Length of Manuscript
Portfolios. The descriptive text should be no more than 600 words

Text Formatting
Mss should be submitted in Word. The Chicago Manual of Style 16th edition is the house standard and must be followed.
Use Times New Roman for the text. Make sure the bold, italic etc. are the proper versions of the font. In Word, you will see Times New Roman Italic in the text box and Regular in the style box next to it. Do not use Times New Roman in the text box and then make it ‘Italic’ in the style box.

Text should be double spaced. Use tab stops for indents or other spacing. Do not use the space bar to create space. Use only one space between sentences. Turn off automatic hyphenation. Do not justify text.

Use the table function for tables not a spreadsheet.

Save your work in .doc format.

Headings
Please use three or fewer levels of heading.

Abbreviations
Abbreviations should be defined at the first instance of use and consistently following.

Terminology
Use the standard mathematical rotation for formualae, symbols etc.

Scientific Style
Use internationally accepted signs and symbols for units (SI units).

Symbols
Accents and any other special characters must be in place throughout the manuscript. Include special, non-Roman fonts if necessary (e.g., Arabic, Hebrew, Greek, etc.). Please alert the editor if your manuscript contains special characters or languages other than English. If your article contains a long passage written in a non-Roman font, please include a PDF of the passage with your article.

Endnotes
Use the endnote form for MS Word (see http://word.mvps.org/faqs/formatting/footnotefaq.htm) Always use endnotes not footnotes.

Do not use endnotes solely for a reference citation. They should not include bibliographic details of a reference or contain tables or figures.

Endnotes are numbered consecutively for text references. Those for tables are numbered in a different sequence with superscript lowercase letters.

References
Only include references cited in the text and that have been published or accepted for publication. Personal communications and unpublished works should only be mentioned in the text. Alphabetise by the last name of the first author of each work.

Citations
Cite references in the text by name and year in parentheses.

Acknowledgements
Include all funding sources, which should be placed before any other acknowledgement.
Tables
Number tables sequentially by Arabic numerals. Indicate where the table belongs with the notation e.g. <INSERT Fig. 2>
Each table should have a caption. Include the caption as a separate block at the end of the mss after the endnotes.

Artwork and Illustrations
For the submission, please send low res scans, with images no bigger than 1mb

For the design and final print preparation:
All color graphics should be submitted as high resolution pdfs at 300 dpi.
All black-and-white graphics should be submitted as high resolution pdfs at 300 dpi.
All line drawings should be submitted as high resolution pdfs at 1200dpi.
Any vector graphics must have the fonts embedded and should be submitted as high resolution pdfs at 1200dpi.

Give the source of the original and whether professional photograph, the author's, or other. Once the final size is determined for use in the journal, we may require a same size copy of the graphic to be made from the original artwork.

Library Filing
Please provide the following:
– an abstract of 150-200 words.
– 4-6 key words for search engines

Biography
Upon request for final text, include a brief author biography at the end of the text.

Copyright
Authors will be asked to transfer copyright of the material to the Publisher or grant the Publisher exclusive publication and dissemination rights in order to reach the widest possible audience.
